2. Admitting One’s Faults: Confessing errors instead of evading responsibility.
3. Being Sorry for One’s Faults: Taking responsibility rather than blaming others.
4. Make Amends for One’s Faults: Correcting wrong-doings without accusing others.
5. Forgiving to Be Forgiven: Offering and receiving forgiveness.

THE METHOD

The method of the MFEP is centered on "acquiring felt experience to change one's life, by humbly pouring out one weakness one struggles with." It is helpful to highlight “differences between practical will and abstract knowledge”

Furthermore, participants in the Heart Conversion Course (HCC) should share their thoughts, feelings, and decisions by concretely showing "love expressed in deeds."
